

LETTER OF CONSENT

To: A.N. All New Investments Ltd – LegacyFX
www.legacyfx.eu

I _____ with ID# _____ and Account# _____ with www.legacyfx.eu, understand that I am about to purchase products that are complex and difficult to understand, e.g. Contract for Difference (CFD) in EUR/USD.

I am also informed that Comisión Nacional de Mercado de Valores (“CNMV”) has determined that, due to its complexity and the risk involved, the purchase of these products by retail investors is not appropriate/suitable.

The company has assessed me and based on the information I have provided, trading CFDs may not be appropriate for me and I may trade CFDs on a demo account prior to trading CFDs in a live environment.

However, I wish to proceed with opening a real trading account with LegacyFX and I understand the risks associated with trading CFDs.

Thank you.

Yours Faithfully,
